

REGISTER NOW

2018 Community Coalitions of Virginia (CCoVA) State Summit
“The Power of Community Collaboration to Impact Substance Abuse”
October 29, 2018
The Hotel Roanoke
110 Shenandoah Avenue | Roanoke, VA
Registration and Hotel Information available
www.communitycoalitionsofva.com

Registration is open for the 2018 CCoVA State Summit in Roanoke on October 29. For the all-day conference, which includes breakfast, lunch and snacks, registration fees are $75pp for students, $135pp for CCoVA members and $165 for nonmembers. The summit will address poly substance abuse and best practices for prevention, education, treatment and community networking. Attendees will be able to choose from 4 tracks: Prevention, Treatment/Recovery, Marijuana and Opioids. The keynote lunch speaker is Beth Macy, New York Times-bestselling author. She will be discussing her latest book, “DOPESICK Dealers, Doctors, and the Drug Company that Addicted America” which traces the nation's Opioid crisis and big Pharma. Monte Stiles, a retired federal drug prosecutor, will join the summit leading a session and providing closing remarks on The Current State of Marijuana.

The Hotel Roanoke is offering rooms for Sunday, Oct 28 at a reduced rate. (Please make your reservation by the cutoff date, September 28, to ensure a room).

In addition, Continuing Education Unit (CEU) credit will be available for those attending the conference.

Please go to the CCoVA website www.communitycoalitionsofva.com to find registration and hotel information.